This Week in Wabash

Hello, Wabash,

It's good to be with you again this week. As I mentioned last Wednesday our Best of Wabash County contest is now in full swing.

Now is the time to get your nominations in. There's no time to waste. The window to submit your favorites will close soon. This means if you have any intention of highlighting the best in your community, you have only a few days left to do so.

Nominations for the contest began Wednesday, Sept. 29, and they will close Thursday, Oct. 14.

All nominations and voting are done online.

Please visit this link to get started.

After round one nominations are completed and we tally the votes to determine the top three winners of each category, we will begin the voting to select winners.

Go back and read through that list. I know you know several names which popped into your head as you read through the categories. People can't vote on them unless you submit their names. If you've already done so, thank you so much. Feel free to share the link so we can get as many names as possible. This contest will only be a success if we all work together to make it so.

I hope you have a great rest of your week. Happy nominating. I'll talk with you next Wednesday.

Best,
Rob
